Privacy Act Statement

28 U.S.C. § 589b authorizes the collection of this information, and provision of this information is mandatory under 11 U.S.C. §§ 704, 1106, and 1107. The United States Trustee will use this information to calculate statutory fee assessments under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6). The United States Trustee will also use this information to evaluate a chapter 11 debtor's progress through the bankruptcy system, including the likelihood of a plan of reorganization being confirmed and whether the case is being prosecuted in good faith. This information may be disclosed to a bankruptcy trustee or examiner when the information is needed to perform the trustee's or examiner's duties or to the appropriate federal, state, local, regulatory, tribal, or foreign law enforcement agency when the information indicates a violation or potential violation of law. Other disclosures may be made for routine purposes. For a discussion of the types of routine disclosures that may be made, you may consult the Executive Office for United States Trustee's systems of records notice, UST-001, "Bankruptcy Case Files and Associated Records." See 71 Fed. Reg. 59,818 et seq. (Oct. 11, 2006). A copy of the notice may be obtained at the following link: http://www.justice.gov/ust/eo/rules_regulations/index.htm. Failure to provide this information could result in the dismissal or conversion of your bankruptcy case or other action by the United States Trustee. 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b)(4)(F).

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing Monthly Operating Report and its supporting documentation are true and correct and that I have been authorized to sign this report on behalf of the estate.

Other Wells Fargo Benefits

3 Things to watch out for when shopping online for the holidays

1. Fake Fraud alerts. Be careful if you receive a call or message about a fraudulent purchase. Always contact the merchant, your bank or card provider directly to verify.
2. Bogus shipping notifications. Look out for texts or emails that say there's an issue or problem with your package delivery. Don't click links or open attachments without verifying first.
3. Questionable sellers or sites. Watch out for sellers who pressure you to pay with a payment app, gift card or crypto. Only purchase concert and sporting events tickets from the original legitimate site. Be cautious of buying a new kitten or puppy from a social media ad. Meet the pet in person before paying.

Tip: Use a credit card to make online purchases if you can - it has additional security features built in.

How to donate safely this holiday season

This holiday season, safely support your favorite causes and avoid charity scams. Before donating, research new charities using a resource like Better Business Bureau® or give.org.

IMPORTANT ACCOUNT INFORMATION

ATM Cash Deposit Security Limitations

Effective November 6, 2024, the section of the Deposit Account Agreement titled "Depositing Funds," subsection titled "Our right to decline deposits," is deleted and replaced with the following:

Our right to decline deposits

We may decline all or part of a deposit, including cash, for any reason. This could happen, for example, if a payee isn't a co-owner, authorized signer, or authorized representative on your account, we can't verify an endorsement, the check was issued from a credit account, the dollar amount of the deposit, the check looks suspicious, or it's a non-U.S. item. If we decline a deposit that you mailed to us, we may return it to you at your cost (including charging you for postage and handling to return foreign currency coin or paper), or retain any invalid checks or other documents included in the deposit without crediting your account, at our discretion. There are limits on the total dollar amount of checks that can be deposited at Wells Fargo ATMs per transaction. We may decline ATM check deposits that exceed $1 million. For security reasons there may also be limits on the dollar amount or frequency of cash deposits you can make at Wells Fargo ATMs.

If we cannot verify an endorsement, we can also decline to pay, cash, or send the item for collection. We can require that all endorsers be present and that you deposit the item instead of cashing it.

Non-account owners are not allowed to deposit cash into consumer accounts. For business accounts, any person wanting to make a cash deposit must provide an acceptable form of identification before we accept a cash deposit.

Wells Fargo Deposit Account Agreement: Changes To Consumer Arbitration Agreement And Other Dispute Resolution Provisions

Effective November 6, 2024, we are updating the Wells Fargo Deposit Account Agreement. This includes changes to the dispute resolution provisions. Wells Fargo greatly values and appreciates its relationships with its customers. These changes are designed to ensure that in the unlikely event that a dispute arises between us, that there are streamlined procedures in place to ensure a fair and efficient process in arbitration.

The changes to the arbitration agreement applicable to Consumer Accounts ("Arbitration Agreement" or "Agreement") can be found at pp. 38-39 of the Wells Fargo Deposit Account Agreement, including: (a) the party initiating arbitration must sign the arbitration demand and include certain information in its demand; (b) any party may request to have the arbitration conducted by a video or in-person hearing or through written submissions, with certain exceptions; (c) like in federal court, the arbitrator may issue sanctions or order cost shifting under certain circumstances consistent with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; (d) all issues are for the arbitrator to decide, except that issues relating to whether an arbitration agreement exists or whether a dispute falls within that agreement, or whether the agreement is enforceable, are for a court to decide; and (e) a small claims court will determine whether a dispute falls within its jurisdiction if a party chooses to have a claim brought to such a court.

The updates also include changes to the Additional Terms and Services, located at pp. 42-43 of the Wells Fargo Deposit Account Agreement, including: (a) modifications to the class action waiver applicable in arbitration and litigation; and (b) the addition of a venue provision noting that if the Arbitration Agreement is ever deemed not applicable, then, except for disputes brought in small claims court, the parties consent to the jurisdiction of the state or federal courts in the state whose laws govern the consumer's account.

The revised Deposit Account Agreement, effective November 6, 2024, is available at www.wellsfargo.com/online-banking/consumer-account-fees/, by calling the Bank at the number listed on your account statement, or by visiting a branch.

NEW YORK CITY CUSTOMERS ONLY -- Pursuant to New York City regulations, we request that you contact us at 1-800-TO WELLS (1-800-869-3557) to share your language preference.

- To dispute or report inaccuracies in information we have furnished to a Consumer Reporting Agency about your accounts: Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. may furnish information about deposit accounts to Early Warning Services. You have the right to dispute the accuracy of information that we have furnished to a consumer reporting agency by writing to us at Overdraft Collection and Recovery, P.O. Box 5058, Portland, OR 97208-5058. Include with the dispute the following information as available: Full name (First, Middle, Last), Complete address, The account number or other information to identify the account being disputed, Last four digits of your social security number, Date of Birth. Please describe the specific information that is inaccurate or in dispute and the basis for the dispute along with supporting documentation. If you believe the information furnished is the result of identity theft, please provide us with an identity theft report.
- In case of errors or questions about other transactions (that are not electronic transfers): Promptly review your account statement within 30 days after we made it available to you, and notify us of any errors.
- If your account has a negative balance: Please note that an account overdraft that is not resolved 60 days from the date the account first became overdrawn will result in closure and charge off of your account. In this event, it is important that you make arrangements to redirect recurring deposits and payments to another account. The closure will be reported to Early Warning Services. We reserve the right to close and/or charge-off your account at an earlier date, as permitted by law. The laws of some states require us to inform you that this communication is an attempt to collect a debt and that any information obtained will be used for that purpose.
- To download and print an Account Balance Calculation Worksheet(PDF) to help you balance your checking or savings account, enter www.wellsfargo.com/balancemyaccount in your browser on either your computer or mobile device.

1. Use the following worksheet to calculate your overall account balance.
2. Go through your register and mark each check, withdrawal, ATM transaction, payment, deposit or other credit listed on your statement. Be sure that your register shows any interest paid into your account and any service charges, automatic payments or ATM transactions withdrawn from your account during this statement period.
